HONGKONG, MONDAY, MARCH 25, 1895.

THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF LI HUNG-CHANG.

At 9.15 last night we received a special wire stating that while Li HUNG-CHANG was returning from the peace conference now being held at Shimonooski on the afternoon of the 23rd instant, he was deliberately shot at by a young Japanese, named KOYAMA, who was immediately arrested. Viceroy Li was severely wounded in the face. This news was issued as an "Extra" this morning. This rash act will no doubt turn out to be for China's good, and be the means of bringing hostilities between the two countries to a speedy termination. The man KOYAMA is no doubt a crank seeking notoriety, who will be dealt with most severely at the hands of his own Government; but China will require satisfaction for the insult on the nation and for the grave assault on her aged statesman, whom Japan, to say the least, ought to have been able to protect during the stay of the peace mission in that country and while employed in such an important office. Japan cannot shut her eyes to this fact, and will therefore have to be less exacting in her demands upon China. The affair is most unfortunate for Japan at this most critical moment, for although we felt certain that Li HUNG-CHANG's mission would end in failure, we now feel inclined to believe that this unforeseen attempt to take his life may end in peace being soon declared between the two countries. Should Li recover from his wound and return to China, it will also help his cause. For most assuredly, had he failed in his mission, there would have been an outcry made against him by his many enemies. But this affair will cause a cry of general sympathy in his favour and he will be looked upon as a great hero.

We regret that the affair should have happened and await impatiently for further details and developments, which, if they do not come to hand before we go to press, we hope to receive very shortly.

Since the above was set up in type we received another telegram informing us that the would-be Japanese assassin and crank, KOYAMA, fired his revolver when only a short distance from poor old Li. The bullet struck Li's cheek and entered just below the eye. The physicians have made several unsuccessful attempts to remove the bullet; the aged statesman's recovery is considered doubtful and his condition is very critical. It is very certain now that Li HUNG-CHANG will not be able to carry on the peace negotiations, and some time will elapse before another official can be appointed to fill his place. In fact, considering what has already happened, it is extremely doubtful if China will care to send another statesman to Japan, and we think it not at all improbable that peace negotiations will have to be held elsewhere than in the "Land of the Rising Sun."

THE ORIENTAL WAR.

LI HUNG-CHANG SHOT.

HIS ASSAILANT ARRESTED.

SHANGHAI, March 24th.

As Li HUNG-CHANG was returning from the peace conference, at Shimonooski, yesterday afternoon he was deliberately shot at and severely wounded in the face by a young man named KOYAMA, 21 years of age, who was immediately arrested.

The greatest excitement prevails among the populace of Shimonooski, and in Peking great uneasiness is felt owing to the probability of the peace negotiations being brought to a complete standstill until Li HUNG-CHANG either recovers from the effects of the daring attempt on his life or a suitable successor is appointed in his stead.

In the meantime Field Marshal Oyama and General Nodzu are rapidly completing their arrangements for a descent upon the city in which the impotent and misguided youth, commonly known as the Emperor Kwang-yu, occupies the tottering Dragon Throne and is vainly endeavouring to keep up a semblance of unique dignity and serene indifference all that is going on within a short distance of the capital of his once mighty empire.

Li HUNG-CHANG is suffering from nervous prostration. The weapon used by the would-be assassin, KOYAMA, was a small six-chambered revolver.

LI HUNG-CHANG'S CONDITION IS PRO-NOUNCED CRITICAL.

SHANGHAI, March 24th.

According to the latest telegrams to hand, and by private telegrams received from Shimonooski, the revolver was fired at Li HUNG-CHANG at a short distance. The bullet entered Li HUNG-CHANG's cheek just below the eye. Several attempts have been made to extract the bullet, but thus far the physicians have not succeeded in extracting it. The patient's condition is considered very critical, and his recovery very doubtful.

THE DESCENT ON FORMOSA.

AMOI, March 24th.

A small Japanese squadron has completely silenced the forts at Makung in the Pescadore, and the port of that name, the neighbouring lighthouse and the whole group may now be said to be in full possession of the Japanese.

THE CLOSING OF TAMSUI.

The port of Tamsui, North Formosa, has been partially closed by the Chinese, and vessels calling there will, until further notice, have to discharge their cargoes into lighters outside the Bar.

LI HUNG-CHANG'S MISSION.

YOKOHAMA, March 18th.

Li HUNG-CHANG arrived at Shimonooski at 8.30 this morning. Count Inouye, Secretary of the Foreign Office, boarded the steamer immediately and returned on the shore at ten, accompanied by Mr. Foster, Lord Li and others, who called on Viscount Matsui, Minister for Foreign Affairs.

THE JAPANESE IN SOUTH CHINA.

LONDON, March 23rd.

The Japanese have been reported at Makung, Pescadores Group.

BISMARCK SNUBBED.

The Reichstag has refused to congratulate Prince Bismarck on his eightieth birthday. The Emperor William has wired to Prince Bismarck expressing his profound indignation at the occurrence, which is in absolute contradiction to the feeling of almost every German in the Empire.

HALF THE STORY.

Li HUNG-CHANG whilst returning to his temporary residence from the Peace Conference, was shot at and wounded in the face by a Japanese youth armed with a pistol.

The perpetrator of the outrage has been arrested.

TERRIFIC GALES IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Terrific gales have swept over Great Britain causing great damage and serious loss of life.

LATE TELEGRAMS.

LONDON, March 23rd.

In the House of Commons, last night, a Bill to establish Boards of Conciliation in Labour disputes was read for the first time. Mr. Chamberlain introduced the Bill as being totally inadequate to deal with the settlement of labour disputes.

March 23rd.

A large fire broke out at Port of Spain in Trinidad involving the complete destruction of the business quarter of the town. The damage is estimated to be nearly one million sterling. The configuration would have proved even more serious had not detachments of British and American troops been ordered to render assistance; owing to the action of the sea-men, the remainder of the town was saved.

Owing to the epidemic of influenza which is raging, a number of deaths have been registered in the London district alone, there were fourteen hundred deaths above the average of the last ten years.

March 23rd.

The estimate for the British Navy for the financial year 1895-96 amount to about nineteen millions one hundred and sixteen thousand pounds, or one million seven hundred and fifty thousand more than the sum voted in 1894-95; the total number of men for 1895-96 will be eighty-eight thousand nine hundred, or an increase of five thousand five hundred men upon the total of last year. The important new works to be constructed are at Portland, Gibraltar, Dover, Hongkong and Portsmouth. A loan to cover the cost will be necessary.

The British Army Estimates for the financial year 1895-96 amount to seventeen millions eight hundred and eighty-one thousand, showing a decrease of two hundred thousand when compared with last year. The effective services remain unchanged. The Government hope to withdraw a battalion from the Army of Occupation in Egypt during the present year, thus enabling them to complete the garrisons in the South African coastal stations. The system of hiring transports will be fully tested before deciding on the construction of new vessels to replace the troopships.

The report of General Fielding shows that recruiting for the British Army is becoming more popular. An improvement is taking place in respect to the social position of those offering themselves for enlistment.

A MEETING of the Legislative Council will be held to-morrow at 4 p.m.

On Tuesday, 19th inst., the first reading of a Bill entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Public Health Ordinance, 1887, in relation to Common Lodging Houses."

Altogether, about ten inches of snow fell in Shanghai on 15th and 16th inst. The only serious accident caused by this heavy fall was the collapse of the corrugated iron roof of one of the N. Y. K. godowns, which fell in about noon on the 16th.

The Agents (Messrs. Dowdell, Carhill & Co.) inform us that the Northern Pacific Steamship Co.'s steamer "Victoria" which left Yokohama on the 1st inst. arrived at Victoria, B.C. on the 16th inst., and left again for this port, via Japan, on the 23rd inst.

According to the Vienna Politische Correspondenz the Russian Far Eastern Squadron is to be increased until its strength is brought up to six first-class cruisers, five second-class cruisers, eight gunboats, and six torpedo-boats, besides certain small craft.

The following naval appointments have been gazetted:—Lieutenant M. C. Cartwright (in command), Sub-Lieutenant Walter R. G. Petre and Percy W. Penfith (N), and Assistant Engineer W. P. Leahy to the Pigeon. John Meyer (boatswain) to the Caroline.

New piano repairing machinery, received by W. Robinson & Co.

The Commander-in-Chief of Kiangnan has been rewarded by the Emperor with the title of "Junior Second Rank, First Grade, with the title of Marquis." His Majesty has written an auspicious character with his own hand. The receipt of the decree and tablet were celebrated a few days ago by the officials of the province all of whom congratulated the lucky gentleman.

The Kiukiang correspondent of the Shanghai Mercury informs us under date of the 18th inst. that after some considerable delay at Wuhu owing to the low state of the water, the British steamer Rosary, with cotton mill machinery from Manchester, passed on the 17th inst. for Wuchang. The water had risen 5 inches on the last day, marking on the 18th 7 feet 3 inches.

CAPTAIN E. Chichester commissioned the fast Seyla, 3,400 tons, 7,000-horse-power, at Changhai on 19th ultimo, for special service. The Seyla will carry officers and seamen to relieve those whose time has expired on the Pigeon and Corbach, on the China and East India Stations respectively. The former will work the vessel on the outward voyage, and she will be manned by the time-expired crews on returning to England.

In the ordinary course of things, says the Z. & C. Express, Vice-Admiral the Hon. Sir E. R. F. P. would come home from China in April, and will, as we have already stated, be succeeded by Vice-Admiral C. F. Hohman, but there is, however, just a chance that the course of events in the East may yet delay the transfer of the command, if peace between China and Japan be not soon concluded.

SIR E. GREY, in the House of Commons on the 19th ultimo, in reply to Sir M. Stewart, who asked whether Her Majesty's Government had applied to the Japanese Government for compensation for the British subject lost in the sinking of the British steamship Kowching, stated that he could not say more at present than that the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs was now in communication with the owners of the Kowching with regard to their claim.

The following Imperial Decree was issued on the 17th inst.:—"The Emperor HUNG LEUNG-PUN reports that the Assistant President of Tibet, No. Ch'in, who was appointed to that post last year, has not yet left Peking, we have ordered the Board of Punishments to enquire into the reason of this, and No. Ch'in answered that it was usual for those going to that position to leave Peking in the spring and reach their posts in autumn. Now we think this reprehensible and order No. Ch'in to start on his journey at once."

We learn that the Japanese will not be able to use the Ting-yuen, says the Kobe Chronicle, as she is so greatly injured as to be beyond hope of repair. Her destruction was wrought not by the Japanese with their torpedo-boats, however, but by the Chinese acting upon direct orders of Admiral Ting. On the night of the 11th ult., when the Chinese Admiral had abandoned all hope of saving the Ting-yuen, which had been ordered that the Ting-yuen, which had been described after being damaged by the Japanese torpedo-boats, should be destroyed. A quantity of dynamite was therefore placed amidships and exploded, with the result that the engine-room, bridge, deck, funnel, &c., were completely shattered. The magnificent Ting-yuen will never again float the sea.

The strike of coolies referred to in a recent issue still goes merrily on—only the wrong way for the hapless coolies. They refused to coal the P. and O. liner Pekin and would not work the cargo of the Pekin to-day. The result is that the Pekin has been coaled by 30 convicts from Victoria Gaol, and her cargo has been handled by the Malay crew and by 150 Volunteers from the Rifle Brigade, while the cargo of the Pekin has been worked by her own crew. Added to this it is clear that if necessary as many as 500 of the rank and file of the Rifle Brigade can be relied on to Volunteer to do all the "humping" that may be requisite to keep the trade of the port in full swing. The action of the Government on this occasion is highly commendable and should have the effect of bringing the leaders of the agitation to a proper sense of the folly of "humping against the prick." The "yarn" about the poll-tax is a trifle too thin, and it is probable that if the life is given to those who are persecuted to have circulated so many misleading stories lately, by proclamation or otherwise, that the difficulty would be got over in a very short measure.

W. ROBINSON & Co. piano builders, tuners and repairers.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Co.'s steamship Empress of Japan arrived at Nagasaki at 7.30 a.m. to-day, and left again at 5 p.m.

According to the Shanghai Sin Wen Pao an Imperial Decree was issued on the 17th inst. degrading Wu Tacheng for having boasted so loudly before the Japanese attacked him, and having made no proper arrangements to resist the enemy when they did attack him. For this negligence he is deprived of all his decorations and offices, and handed over to the Board of Punishments for their decision.

The Gazette publishes an account of an interview with M. Armand Rousseau, the new Governor of French Indo-China. He said that he was starting for his post with the intention of carrying on the work begun by his predecessor. He was convinced that the colony would repay the mother country for all the sacrifices made for it, and he expressed the opinion that the Chinese would be found to have contributed not a little to rid the colony's frontiers of the hands of pirates which infested them.

Sir Charles Dilke asked the Secretary to the Admiralty whether, in addition to the French Navy, the Japanese navy were now using high-explosive shells at sea; and whether Parliament could, with due regard to the advantages of the public service, be informed if the British Fleet were now in any degree, provided with such shells. Mr. E. Roberts replied:—"The Admiralty have no special information in regard to the first part of the right hon. baronet's question. As to the second part, I may explain that, at present at all events, it would not be to the advantage of the public service that I should make a statement on the matter."

An urgent memorial from Sung Ch'ing has been received by the Grand Council of War complaining of the withdrawal of General Nien Sh'ang, of Chibbi, and Chang Kuo-shan, of Kiangsu. These two Generals and their troops have done great service during all the hard fighting in Manchuria, and memorialist declares that he will be unable to hold the country east of Shan-shui-kuan if his best men are taken away from him. He, therefore, prays that a decree be issued countermanding the recall of the two Generals now on their way back to Tientsin and T'ungchow. The Emperor was at first inclined to grant Sung Ch'ing's request, but upon the advice of the Grand Council of War, Sung was informed that he ought to do well enough now that 80,000 Hunan troops are in the field to help him.

The Special Chinese Embassy sent by the Emperor to congratulate the Czar on his accession to the throne, arrived at St. Petersburg on the 16th ultimo, and was met at the railway station by the members of the Imperial Court and representatives of the Imperial Court and the Ministry for Foreign Affairs. They drove straight to the Hotel d'Europe, the shell and corridors of which were temporarily blocked with an immense quantity of luggage, containing rich silk brocades and other wedding gifts. It is again reaffirmed that the Envoy is to inform himself minutely as to the latest news and opinions prevalent about the war, and to bring about an understanding between Russia and China, on at least an attitude friendly to China, in return for certain important concessions.

DEALING with the Parcel Post Convention with Japan in the House of Commons on the 19th ultimo, Mr. Henalke Heaton asked the Postmaster-General whether the Government were aware that a parcel post convention had been concluded between Japan and Germany, coming into operation on January 1st, 1895; and whether a similar convention had been concluded between the United Kingdom and Japan, and, if not, what was the cause of the delay. Mr. A. Morley replied in the affirmative, and added, I promptly made arrangements for the conveyance of parcels from this country and Japan via Germany, issuing more than a week ago public notices on the subject, which the hon. member has doubtless seen. Proposals for an Anglo-Japanese convention were made to the Japanese Government in 1885 and have since been repeatedly renewed. There is reason to hope that the Japanese Government, which is solely responsible for the delay, may accept the proposals before long.

SHORTLY before eight o'clock last night the fire alarm echoed throughout the city owing to a fire having broken out in Bonham Street. The fire originated in No. 98, the second building from the corner of York Street. Although the firemen put it in an early appearance, and under the skilful guidance of Mr. H. E. Woodhouse, did very efficient work, it was one of those nasty fires that was difficult to reach and had therefore to be attacked from every possible direction. A very serious obstacle in the way of the firemen was the immense pile of coals, piled up, illegally, upon the fire escape, and supported only by an "egg-shell" wall on the street side. Water was played on the burning buildings during the entire night and until this morning. All the buildings from and including No. 88 were more or less damaged by water as was also No. 125 Jervois Street. These shops, being considered first-class risks, along with the location of the best class of Chinese houses, there was considerable insurance on the different buildings, distributed through a number of our most prominent insurance companies; but the losses, except with regard to No. 98, were not very heavy; the damage being caused chiefly by the large amount of salt-water used. The loss at No. 88 will be about $25 and is insured with Messrs. Stenson & Co. in the Transatlantic. The business was that of a medicine and drug firm. No. 98 was insured for $500, with Messrs. Schellhaas & Co. in the Hanseatic and was damaged only by water, on the second floor. In No. 93 (silk cocoons) and 94 (medicine), there were several companies, etc., interested. The South British had $1,000 on the ground floor. Messrs. Meyer & Co., representing the Prussian National Co., had $500 on the 1st floor, and Messrs. Stenson & Co. had $10,000 on the two buildings 92 and 94, adjoining the Sun Insurance Co. No. 95 was a total loss, or nearly so, and was insured with Messrs. Schellhaas & Co. for $1,000. No. 96 was insured with Messrs. Stenson & Co. for $7,000 and suffered very slightly, since the goods stored there were all cheap chawans. The goods in No. 125 Jervois Street, insured for $11,000, were hardly damaged at all.

A new gold mining company, the Bukit Mas North Gold Mining Co., Ltd., has been registered at Penang with a capital of $50,000 in 500 shares of $50 each. The directors are Messrs. J. M. Anthony, E. A. B. Brown, H. A. W. Aylesbury, J. B. M. Leach, H. R. Baldwin, and John Addis. Mr. O. Hallifax has been appointed Secretary, and Messrs. Hallifax & Co. agents in Penang.

We have reason to believe that Li HUNG-CHANG telegraphed the Tientsin officials from Peking to continue their preparations and defensive measures, as the terms in Japan's preliminary statement were all but impossible, says Shanghai morning contemporary of the 20th instant. From this it is evident that formally or informally the Hiroshima authorities have communicated the basis on which they will consent to negotiate. Tientsin official give the five headings of their hitherto hypothetical basis: (1) Cession of the Liaodun Peninsula; (2) Cession of territory; (3) Opening up of China; (4) Exterritorial settlements for Japanese in China, without reciprocity. It is supposed that the impossibility of the proposed terms lies under the cession of territory clauses, and speculations are afloat that Li's visit to the Russian and French Legations had reference to counter-proposals by which China might secure the friendly intervention of these Western Powers.

In the House of Commons on the 19th ultimo, several matters were brought forward in connection with the Far East. The Secretary of the Straits Military Contribution, Mr. Henalke Heaton, asked the Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies whether he was aware that in consequence of the large contribution demanded by Her Majesty's Government from the Straits Settlements the unofficial members of the Council, or some of them, together with the leading merchants and other functionaries, had resigned office and whether the Secretary of State still intended to compel the official members of the Council to vote such a contribution as he might decide upon. Mr. Buxton said that three out of seven unofficial members of the Legislative Council of the Straits Settlements had resigned their seats; and a fourth member, whose term of office had expired, had declined to be re-nominated; fifteen of the justices of the peace for Singapore and the members of the Chinese Advisory Board had also resigned, a protest, it was understood, against the decision of Her Majesty's Government on the subject of the military contribution. The correspondence on the whole question would be laid before Parliament. With regard to the second part of the question he might observe that it was a general principle of administration, and one not peculiar to the Government of Crown Colonies, that the principal components of a Government should retain support of Government measures when required or else resign their places. In reply to the supplementary question, he stated that steps were being taken to further consider the situation.

A HOME paper received by the mail yesterday contains the following in reference to the diabolical Armenian atrocities:—"The Central News reports that Professor Tchere, the Editor of the Armenian, has received the following information from correspondents in Turkey:—There is no security in the district of Hassen Kail. Tortsan has been sacked by Kurds who killed many Armenians. The terror-stricken villagers emigrated to Russia. En route they were attacked by Kurdish brigands, who maltreated women and took away the young girls. At Herter, Nasib Bey seized a large number of young Armenian women, and converted them to Islamism by force after they were violated. At the village of Abri (Boulavouk), the Kurdish sheik Kizil killed Channer, the Mayor's son, and his three children, taking away his wife Nigular. Kurds attacked a large Armenian caravan from Boulavouk, on the Persian frontier, ill-treating the women and seizing ten girls. They killed 115 persons—men, women, and children. In the prison of Van there are now 200 Armenian political prisoners. By the order of the Governor, Bahri Pasha, the Turkish gendarmes frequently submit them to torture to wring confessions from them. They are deprived of their food, and of the greater portion of their clothing. They are left without water or food for long periods, and exposed to the inclemency of the weather. Heavy chains are attached to their necks, hands, and feet, and pressed from prison to prison. The necks and thighs of two prisoners, named Tchidjidan and Sosoyan, have been burned with red-hot iron. Twenty prisoners have up to the present succumbed to these tortures. There were sixty prisoners from the district of Nariman in the central prison of Erzerum. Forty-five of these are dead, including a priest."

THE following from the Singapore Free Press is distinctly amusing:—

Thin Children Grow Fat
On Scott's Emulsion, because fat foods make fat children. They are thin, and remain thin just in proportion to their inability to assimilate food rich in fat.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is especially adaptable to those of weak digestion—it is partly digested already. Astonishing how quickly a thin person gains solid flesh by its use!

Almost as palatable as milk.
